DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-29 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant has claimed uniquely distinct features in the instant invention that are not found in the prior art, either singularly or in combination. The present invention is directed to an authentication method that verifies the integrity of unauthenticated code through a hash of itself embedded within automatically authenticated code. Each independent claim identifies the uniquely distinct feature for "receiving automatically authenticated code, the automatically authenticated code including an embedded first hash value of the unauthenticated code." The closest prior art, McManis (US pat 5,692,047) discloses a method for authenticating non-verifiable code with the use of verifiable code, but fails to anticipate or render the above underlined limitation obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

4. The interlineations or cancellations made in the specification or amendments to the claims could lead to confusion and mistake during the issue and printing processes. Accordingly, the portion of the specification or claims as identified below is required to be rewritten before passing the case to issue. See 37 CFR 1.125 and MPEP § 608.01(q). More than half of the original specification needs to be corrected because of interlineations or cancellations. Applicant should rewrite the specification to address the amended changes to prevent confusion.

5. This application presents a claim for subject matter not originally claimed or embraced in the statement of the invention. The scope of claims 2,3,12,13,22,23 were broaden when "Java" was amended to "platform independent." A supplemental oath or declaration is required under 37 CFR 1.67. The new oath or declaration must properly identify the application of which it is to form a part, preferably by application number and filing date in the body of the oath or declaration. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
